

Introduction to Great Commission Studies

Week Five: State of Global Population

- _____ people groups of the world are both unengaged and unreached.
- _____ people groups are still considered unreached.
- Of 7000 languages of the world, more than _____ have none of the Bible in written form.
- Only _____ have the entire Bible in that language.
- _____ people in the world are oral preference learners.
- More than _____ of the world now live in urban settings.
- Three billion people live on less than _____ per day.
- 22 million+ people live in metro New York City, where _____ languages are spoken in the home.
- In Canada, there is one Southern Baptist church for every _____ persons. In North Carolina, that ratio is _____.
- If the ratio of Christian workers to total population in North Africa were applied to the U.S. and Canada, those two countries would have about _____ full-time Christian workers living in them.

Understanding the Process of Calling

I. C.A.L.L.

C = _____ by self and others

A = _____

L = _____

L = _____

II. Divine Intersections

- Need
- Desire
- Opportunity

III. Unrolling the Scroll

Becoming a Great Commission Christian

1. Listen to (or read) the _____ with Great Commission ears and eyes.
2. Talk to your kids or grandkids about their _____.
3. Put a _____ on a wall in your home.
4. Meet a _____.
5. Visit ethnic _____ in your community.
6. Invite international _____ to your home.
7. Learn another _____ (or at least encourage your children or grandchildren to do so).
8. Read missionary _____.
9. Take a trip _____.
10. Study the Great Commission _____ in the Bible.

Communicating the Gospel Cross-Culturally

I. Understanding Worldview and Orientation

- A. Task vs. _____
- B. Time vs. _____
- C. _____ vs. group
- D. _____ vs. Indirect communication

II. Dealing with Culture Shock

- a. Fun:

- b. Flight:

c. Fight:

d. Fit: